Resource guide for American Legion digital media

Websites

The primary American Legion website can be found at www.legion.org. From there, visitors can learn more about the organization, its programs, become a member and visit our online store. Here are some other notable links:

MEMBERSHIP: Information for members, prospective members and recruiters. www.legion.org/membership

GET PUBLISHED! Share military stories, post histories and more, www.legiontown.org

MEMORIALS: We are building a digital archive of war memorials. Visit or add to the database here, www.legion.org/memorials

E-newsletters

The American Legion produces and distributes a dozen free e-newsletters with news and information for veterans, servicemembers and others. Sign up for which ones you would like to receive, www.legion.org/newsletters

Social media

The American Legion is active on the primary social media platforms, including:

FACEBOOK: The Legion's main Facebook page has an active news feed and can be found here, www.facebook.com/americanlegionhq. Other sanctioned Facebook pages can be found here, www.legion.org/socialmedia

TWITTER: Timely news updates from the Legion and other sources for military and veterans news. twitter.com/American Legion

LINKEDIN: Resource information, career advice and tips, and links to job fairs for veterans. www.linkedin.com/company/the-american-legion/

INSTAGRAM: Photos from American Legion staffers. www.instagram.com/theamericanlegion/

Publications

Download and print American Legion brochures. www.legion.org/publications

Apps

Videos

Our videos are published on the Legion website and You Tube (search for AmericanLegionHQ to subscribe). Additionally, downloadable videos and PSAs are available on our Vimeo channel, vimeo.com/americanlegion

Text alerts

To receive text messages when the president orders the American flag to be lowered, follow these two steps. First, text Flag to 534466. You will receive a text asking for a valid email address for the two-step authorization. Once that is complete, you will receive the text alerts.
